“Nuts & Bolts” topics include: Position Changes, Scent, Stays, Jumping, Heeling, Go Outs, Recalls, Retrieving, Fronts and Finishes -- In this seminar we will cover the training of each obedience exercise from the initial teaching of foundation pieces, to putting those pieces together, polishing the details, and proofing for reliability and understanding.

With a career that includes the 2009 National Obedience Dog of the Year, the first OTCH Beagle, group placements at the NOI in Herding and Hounds, a career total of 6,491 AKC OTCH points, 193 HITs, 252 HCs, four 200s, Laura truly understands how to bridge the gap from training to showing.

Laura uses a balanced training approach built on scientifically recognized behavioral principals. She excels at teaching reliable responses to commands, while motivating dogs to understand and enjoy the training process. In addition to her own success, Laura has a knack for breaking exercises down and explaining her techniques and principles in a straightforward way that others can understand. In just a few short years of teaching, Laura’s students have earned many titles from Rally Novice through OTCH, High in Trial, and High Combined awards, and National Specialty wins. Laura loves working with obedience enthusiasts at all levels; no matter your experience, breed of dog, or training philosophy – she will help you to improve your training and showing results.
